Fountain Valley Pony Baseball Player Protection Permission Form

"It's for the Kids"

Instructions:

Managers wishing to protect players prior to the division try-out or team assignment must secure the written permission of the player's parents/guardians. Managers may protect up to five players for whom they have protection rights. For information about player protection rules refer, to the current FVPB League Rules. This form must be completed and returned to the Division Vice President by the due date as instructed by the Division VP. The Vice President will forward the list to the Player Agent for review and approval. The Player Agent and the Division Vice-President will resolve disputes concerning protection requests.
